

Brewery Applications

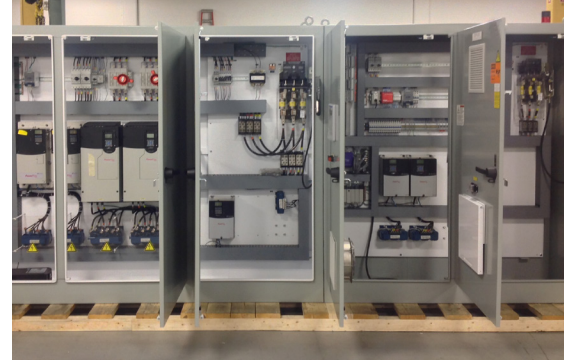

ControlTech Automation has been serving the brewery industry in the United States for more than 25 years.

New Installation Projects

ControlTech Automation has the financial viability, capacity and velocity to support large controls projects and regularly supports capital projects that require large control panels and skid assemblies.

Services

- Brewing Controls
- Packaging Controls
- Utility Controls
- Customized Switchgear
- Conversions
- Professional Assembly
- FAT Services
- Expedited Delivery

ControlTech Automation integration centers specialize in the design, manufacture and certification of industrial control and power distribution panels, providing a complete integration process for packaging, process, facilities, utilities, and other industrial applications.